

I want my airwaves back!

Too many media companies are using public airwaves to push partisan agendas. This is not a fit use of the bandwidth they've been granted.

Pappas Telecasting Companies' 'donation' of $325,000 in airtime to Republican candidates in certain areas is yet another example of a powerful media group abusing its privileged access to the public airwaves.

Pappas uses the public airwaves free of charge and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. Pappas' actions are legally questionable and do not serve the public interest.

The next time their license is up for renewal, please put me on record as opposing it. I'm tired of media abuse of the public trust.

Sincerely, Chris Finnie
